1. Aims

Odyssey Collaborative Trust aims to meet its obligations under the public sector equality duty by having due regard to the need to:

- Eliminate discrimination and other conduct that is prohibited by the Equality Act 2010
- Advance equality of opportunity between people who share a protected characteristic and people who do not share it
- Foster good relations across all characteristics – between people who share a protected characteristic and people who do not share it

This policy is written to encompass trust-wide aims for pupils and staff across Odyssey Collaborative Trust, as well as providing scope for each school within the trust to add objectives specific to their context.

At Asterdale Primary School we aim for everyday excellence in our expectations of each other and all within our community in upholding shared values for conduct and equality in all aspects of school life – this is reflected in our whole-school rule: ‘everyone will act with courtesy and consideration to others at all times’.

2. Legislation and guidance

This document meets the requirements under the following legislation:

- The Equality Act 2010, which introduced the public sector equality duty and protects people from discrimination
- The Equality Act 2010 \(Specific Duties\) Regulations 2011, which require schools to publish information to demonstrate how they are complying with the public sector equality duty and to publish equality objectives
- This document is also based on Department for Education (DfE) guidance: The Equality Act 2010 and schools.
- This document also complies with Odyssey Collaborative Trust’s funding agreement and articles of association.

3. Roles and responsibilities

- The Board of Trustees have overall responsibility for ensuring the Trust complies with equality law.
- Day to day responsibility for monitoring the achievement of the objectives on a daily basis is delegated to the Chief Operations Officer (COO). The Chief Operations Officer will regularly monitor the implementation and effectiveness of this policy.
- The Headteacher of each school is responsible for personalising the policy template and ensuring that the school complies with legislation and that this policy and its related procedures and action plans are implemented.

- The objectives in section 8 are split into those which are trust-wide and are written by the CEO and those which are written by the headteacher to take into account local context and apply only to Asterdale Primary School.
- All staff across the trust are expected to have regard to this document and to work to achieve the objectives as set out in section 8.

4. Eliminating discrimination

The trust is aware of its obligations under the Equality Act 2010 and complies with non-discrimination provisions.

Where relevant, our policies include reference to the importance of avoiding discrimination and other prohibited conduct.

Trustees, local governors and all staff are regularly reminded of their responsibilities under the Equality Act.

5. Advancing equality of opportunity

As set out in the DfE guidance on the Equality Act, the trust aims to advance equality of opportunity by:

- Removing or minimising disadvantages suffered by people which are connected by a particular characteristic they have (e.g. pupils with disabilities)
- Taking steps to meet the particular needs of people who have a particular characteristic (e.g. enabling Muslim pupils to pray at prescribed times)
- Encouraging people who have a particular characteristic to participate fully in any activities (e.g. encouraging all pupils to be involved in the full range of school societies)

5.1 Publishing information about pupils

In fulfilling this aspect of the duty the trust will, for every school:

- Monitor attainment data for each school each academic year showing how pupils with different characteristics are performing
- Analyse the above data to determine strengths and areas for improvement, implement actions in response and publish this information
- Monitor evidence available identifying improvements for specific groups (e.g. declines in incidents of homophobic or transphobic bullying)
- Share further data about any issues associated with particular protected characteristics, identifying any issues which could affect our pupils

5.2 Publishing information about staff

In addition to the information about pupils, we will consider how our activities as an employer affect staff with protected characteristics. As a trust, we will publish information to show:

- The make-up of our workforce, with breakdowns of staff with different protected characteristics
- Gender pay-gap reporting and other pay equality issues
- Recruitment and retention rates for staff with different protected characteristics
- Applications for flexible working and their outcomes for staff with different protected characteristics
- Applications for learning and development opportunities and their outcomes for staff with different protected characteristics
- Grievances and disciplinary issues for staff with different protected characteristics
- Policies and programmes in place to address equality concerns from staff

- Information from staff surveys

We will make sure that with any data we publish to show how we meet our equality duties, individual staff or pupils will not be identifiable. This means we may suppress some data if it relates to a very small number of staff or pupils to preserve their confidentiality.

6. Fostering good relations

The trust aims to foster good relations between those who share a protected characteristic and those who do not share it by:

- Promoting tolerance, friendship and understanding of a range of religions and cultures through different aspects of the curriculum. This includes teaching in RE, citizenship and personal, social, health and economic (PSHE) education, but also activities in other curriculum areas. For example, as part of teaching and learning in English/reading, pupils will be introduced to literature from a range of cultures
- Holding assemblies dealing with relevant issues. Pupils will be encouraged to take a lead in such assemblies and we will also invite external speakers to contribute
- Making sure pupils work with their local community. For example, inviting leaders of local faith groups to speak at assemblies, and organising school trips and activities based around the local community
- Encouraging and implementing initiatives to deal with tensions between different groups of pupils within each school. For example, school councils have representatives from different year groups and are formed of pupils from a range of backgrounds. All pupils are encouraged to participate in their schools' activities, such as sports clubs. Schools also work with parents to promote knowledge and understanding of different cultures
- Schools develop links with people and groups who have specialist knowledge about particular characteristics, which helps inform and develop how they implement their approach

7. Equality considerations in decision-making

The trust ensures it has due regard to equality considerations whenever significant decisions are made.

In all of our schools, we will always consider the impact of significant decisions on particular groups. For example, when a school trip or activity is being planned, the school considers whether the trip:

- Cuts across any religious holidays
- Is accessible to pupils with disabilities
- Has equivalent facilities for all pupils irrespective of their gender

8. Equality objectives

The following objectives have been chosen as areas of need in the 2024/2025 year:

Trust wide:

Objective 1: We will promote and proactively work towards enabling a diverse workforce across all levels of our trust.

Objective 2: Develop a Trust wide Staff Equality, Equity, Diversity and Inclusion Policy.

School:

Objective 3: We will monitor and reduce where necessary incidents of prejudice-based behaviours. This will be achieved through termly monitoring through the headteacher report to the Local Governing Board and carefully planned subsequent actions.

Objective 4: We will be mindful and considerate at Asterdale of each other in acknowledging and supporting everyone with workload and expectations to provide a positive working environment for all.
